

CHURCH AND RELIGIOUS NOTES

The Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Rabbi of the Free Synagogue, Returns from Holy Land and Announces Important Plans for Year.

Henry Morgenthau, whom President Wilson has selected as Ambassador to Turkey, is president of the Free Synagogue, the Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise, rabbi, but the latter announces in his prospectus for work of the Free Synagogue for the new year that Mr. Morgenthau's departure will not hinder the work. Rather, thinks the rabbi, it will assist it with the new honor since the first enthusiasm of Free Synagogue supporters has not been spent after six years of work, according to the same authority.

Rabbi Wise, just back from the Holy Land, announces as part of his lecture course this year addresses on Hebrew settlements in the Holy Land as proposed by the Zionist movement. The president of the Free Synagogue, as United States representative at Constantinople, and Rabbi Wise's attitude give added interest to these lectures. One of them, "The Tragedy of Jewish Exile Within Palestine," and another, "Christianity and Christlessness in the Home of Jesus," and still another, "The Future of Palestine, with Special Reference to Zionism," arouse keen interest. The Sunday morning services of the Free Synagogue in Carnegie Hall are to start on October 5, but the synagogue services for the year will begin on Jewish New Year Day, October 1, and continue the next day, on the Jewish Day of Atonement, October 10, there will also be services.

Of late the work of the Free Synagogue among social lines has been strengthened. A mental hygiene clinic has been started with the aid of the New York Foundation. Dr. Minus S. Gregory, of Bellevue, is one of the experts who are assisting. In December and lasting into January and later many experts are to be heard in this social work at the synagogue house in 68th street.

In the Free Synagogue Sunday morning services a number of well known persons, not all of them Jews, have promised to speak. They include J. A. McDonald, of Toronto, the Christian missionary expert; Professor George B. Foster, of the University of Chicago; Joseph J. Bridges, of the Chicago Ethical Society; W. Morgan Shuster, Jane Addams, Dean Sumner, the social work expert, and the Rev. Dr. E. G. Hirsch, of Chicago.

As in previous years the Free Synagogue rabbi and leader announces that this year he will discuss the future of Judaism, and will often compare its prospects with those of Christianity. One of his lectures will be on Henry Ward Beecher's life and work, in view of the anniversary to be observed by his friends, and another, indicating present tendencies, will be on whether religion has need to be saved from social reformers. He will go into the matter of eugenic marriages and

IN REAL-ESTATE MAKE APARTMENT HOUSE FOR TRADE

Lexington Avenue Corner Property Taken in Exchange for Nine Story Kingscote, To Be Improved.

TRANSACTION IN THE BRONX INVOLVES $200,000

The Jacobs Construction Company, represented by Wescher & Kohn as attorneys, sold the new nine story elevator apartment house known as the Kingscote, on the north side of 19th Street, 150 feet from Amsterdam Avenue. The house has a frontage of 150 feet and a depth of 62 feet, and was erected by the selling company a couple of years ago from plans by Schwartz & Gross.

In part payment the buyer, the No. 123 East 53rd Street Company, gave the southeast corner of Lexington Avenue and 38th Street, a four story and basement dwelling, on lot 249x100 feet. In the deal the value of the apartment was placed at $400,000 and the dwelling at $150,000. The Jacobs company will improve the Lexington Avenue corner with a four story apartment house with suites of two and three rooms. Attorneys Kendall & Herzog acted for the 38th Street company.

The Benson Realty Company sold Nos. 41 and 43 15th Street, two new six story flat houses, with stores, each on plot 50x100 feet. The houses are of recent construction and are located on the north side of the street, between Melrose and Elton avenues. The buyer is Anna M. Jones, who gave in exchange for the four story flat house, on lot 104x125x11x irregular, at the southeast corner of Brook and Wendover avenues; also, a four story apartment house on Crotona Avenue, in the vicinity of 183d Street. The transaction involves about $200,000.

Maurice Wertheim has sold for Dr. George E. Brewer the five story, English basement dwelling at No. 61 West 54th Street, on lot 21x100 feet, a Columbia College leasehold. The new owner will have the premises from October 1 on a short term lease, anticipating the early removal of the restrictions.

Dr. Brewer will move to No. 16 East 64th Street, which he purchased through the same broker early in the spring. The Ramon apartments, at 7th Street and Park Avenue, figured in the trade at that time.

Paul Halpin has sold to a building concern a plot of four lots situated on the east side of Nagle Avenue, 100 feet south of 14th Street. The property will be improved with two five-story apartment houses.

Other sales announced yesterday follow: 302D STREET—Harry P. Davis has sold No. 127 East 192d Street, a six story machine, with store, on lot 31x100 feet, adjoining the northeast corner of Lexington Avenue.

HOPKINS STREET—The Brunswick Realty Company has sold the plot, 90x120 feet, partly improved with three frame houses, located on the east side of Hoffman Street, about 31st Street, to a building concern. The buyer is said to be a builder, who will improve the site with a four story apartment house.

24TH STREET—American Mortgage Company has sold the five story, tenement style dwelling house, on lot 18x90x6 feet, which it bought last Friday at auction on a lot 18x90x6 feet.

EIGHTH AVENUE—Emily Mellich purchased through William H. Mellich from Harry Stenlund, 40 West 24th Street, a five story building, on a gore lot fronting 46 feet on Eighth Avenue, 125th St. and facing Jackson Square.

THIRD AVENUE—Emily Mellich purchased through William H. Mellich from Harry Stenlund, 40 West 24th Street, a five story building, on a gore lot fronting 46 feet on Third Avenue, 125th St. and facing Jackson Square.

THE FOLLOWING TRANSACTIONS WERE RECORDED YESTERDAY AT THE REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE SALESROOM, Nos. 11 and 15 Vesey Street.

96TH ST. 2nd Eas. 100x100 ft. of 3d Eas. 25x100 ft. 5 sty tenement and stores. Sold to the plaintiff for $12,000.
